PROSPECTUS

Nayland College Inspiring People

Nelson is at the heart of a thriving region bounded by three national parks, including the world renowned Abel Tasman National Park. Nelson is a place where all the best bits of New Zealand are distilled into a single destination. It has a vibrant culture and arts scene, and an array of stunning natural landscapes to explore.

The wider Nelson region hosts a population of approximately 80,000 people. It has the reputation as the arts capital of New Zealand. Nelson offers an amazing range of outdoor, creative and cultural experiences.

The city's hills and gardens look out to the golden beaches of Tasman Bay, while downtown there is a lively café scene.

Nelson has the highest sunshine hours in New Zealand and is a safe, friendly and caring city.

Nelson has an impressive sporting complex, just two kilometers from Nayland College, where all students are able to access its huge range of facilities.

Nayland College has a proud tradition of academic successes. Students are encouraged to become fully involved in sporting, cultural and recreational programmes. High standards of behaviour are expected, and emphasis is placed on working hard in a positive and supportive environment.

"Nayland College helped me to find my confidence - a school where students matter as individuals - an amazing breadth of subjects and extra-curricular activities on offer."

— Kimberley Savill, Rhodes Scholar

Nayland College is a modern learning environment with wonderful facilities to cater for the learning needs of all students. Nayland College focuses on delivering a relevant curriculum in an innovative and creative way. Since 2018, Nayland College has been recognised by Microsoft as a Showcase school.

Showcase School

"Nayland College has been serving the Nelson community for over 50 years. Over this time it has been a leader in developing inspirational learning programmes, nurturing students to reach their full potential and has placed a high value on developing independent, confident learners who have control of their own futures."

— Mr. Daniel Wilson (Principal)

"Thank you so much for an awesome four years at Nayland... you are all amazing. You have opened so many doors for me and now I will go to University in Tokyo."

— Momoko (Japan)

Nelson is situated in the centre of New Zealand. Students will be surrounded by opportunities to explore and study in a fun, supportive and safe environment.

Academic Programme

The College offers a wide range of subject choices. Students choose a course of study based on their interests, abilities, and their future career direction.

Nayland College is renowned for its outdoor education and marine biology programmes. Because of our location we can offer world class activities and real-world experiences in three National Parks (Abel Tasman, Kahurangi and Nelson Lakes), rivers, seas, beaches and mountains that surround Nayland College.

Other subjects that are offered include: psychology, photography, dance, drama, music, hospitality, digital design, design and visual communication, painting, a range of technology subjects, fashion and design, biology, chemistry, physics, geography, history, business studies, economics, sociology, mathematics, Māori and many more...

Our NCEA results are outstanding at all levels and every year many students excel in New Zealand Scholarship examinations and gain tertiary study awards. Our students also excel in Trinity and Associated Board music and performing arts exams.

Other activities occur outside class time and after school, such as: dance and drama clubs, theatre sports, orchestra, choirs, jazz, rock and concert bands, the environment club, debating and Journalism to mention some of them.

Many sports are also offered after school, including: football, volleyball, rugby, basketball, ultimate frisbee, futsal, netball, tennis to mention just a few.

International Programme

Our experienced International Student programme hosts a balanced intake from the Americas, Asia and Europe.

Our extensive orientation programme helps new students to adjust to a New Zealand school and to their homestay family.

ESOL teachers provide an intensive English language programme and academic English and Cambridge English.

Our well-staffed International Department caters for all our students' needs.

"Nelson – the perfect place to live – an unforgettable exchange experience."

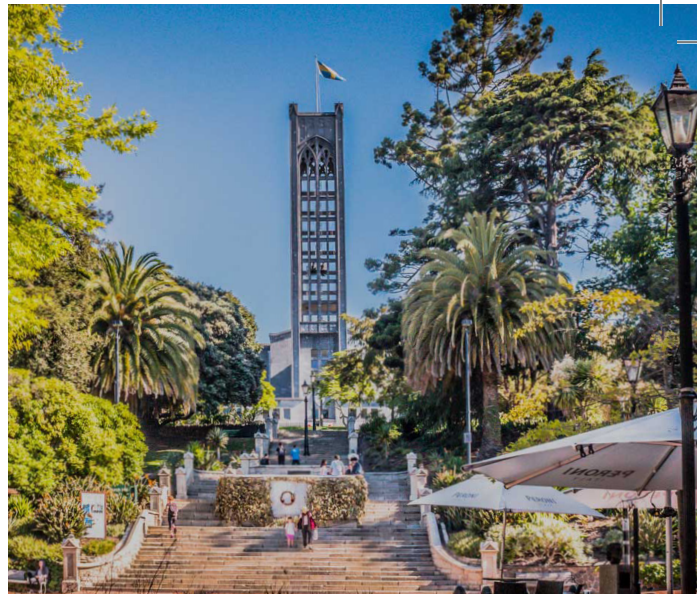

— Natalia (Brazil)
