REFUNDS AND CANCELLATION POLICY

To be eligible for a refund an application must be made in writing to the Board of Trustees by the parent or legal guardian stating clearly the reason for the withdrawal of the student.

If the withdrawal is made prior to the student coming to New Zealand a full refund shall be made less $550.00 administration fee.

There will be no refund if a request to withdraw is made after the student has reached the mid-point of his/her programme of study in New Zealand other than in exceptional circumstances.

In determining any refund the Board of Trustees will take into consideration the special circumstances of the withdrawing student and

- costs already incurred by the college;
- the salaries of the teachers and support staff and any other components of the fee already committed for the duration of the course;
- an amount, which covers use of the facilities and resources to date of withdrawal;
- the proportion of the Government levy the school is required to pay

No refunds will be made to any students who -

- Transfers to another school or educational institution
- Is asked to leave because of their misbehaviour, poor attendance or violation of the contract with the school

Homestay fees not used will be refunded, less any fees due to lack of notice (usually 2 weeks) and any expenses incurred prior to departure that have not been paid for.

ENROLMENT CONTRACT

Nayland College requires that the following undertakings be agreed to by the parents or legal guardian on behalf of themselves and the enrolling student. In return Nayland College will provide tuition in accordance with the New Zealand Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016 and the laws of New Zealand

We would like to enrol our son/daughter (full name) at Nayland College from(dd/mm/yy) to(dd/mm/yy)

- We understand that the student must comply with the rules and policies of Nayland College and with reasonable instructions of the teachers of the school.
- We understand that the student must adhere to the laws of New Zealand
- The same school and homestay policies and rules apply to all international students, regardless of age (e.g. even if they are over 18 years of age) while holding a visa for Nayland College
- We confirm that the information provided is correct and complete and we will advise the College if anything changes.
- We understand that students may have the opportunity to participate in a number of Education Outside the Classroom (EOTC) activities; including the possibility of Outdoor Education classes, sporting events and trips to various local features. We understand that these activities are voluntary and that there are risks associated which cannot be completely eliminated. We understand that the school will identify any foreseeable risks or hazards and implement correct management procedures to eliminate, isolate or minimise those hazards. We give permission for our child to participate in all EOTC activities that they choose.
- We understand that students may take part in activities organised by homestay families and may attend tours run by approved organisations specifically for International students.
- Students are not permitted to travel independently or unsupervised outside the Nelson area while holding a student visa for Nayland College
- Students are not permitted to drive any vehicle holding a student visa for Nayland College
- In the event of an emergency arising in circumstances when medical treatment, including surgery, appears necessary for our child and reasonable efforts to consult us first have not been successful, we hereby authorise Nayland College, to act on our behalf for the purpose of authorising such treatment in our absence
- We are aware that there are costs associated with a number of College activities. We undertake to pay these costs before the activity takes place, unless we have made other arrangements with the College.
- It is understood that the school has consent, unless advised otherwise, to publish photographs and/or video images of the student and/or their work. These images may appear in school publications such as: newsletters, prospectus, magazines, our website and other promotional material.
- This Agreement is subject to the Student being placed in accommodation that is approved by the School. The School will make every reasonable attempt to provide approved accommodation for the Student and the Student agrees to comply with all expectations and conditions for living in School approved accommodation.
- The parties agree that all relevant provisions of the Education Act 1989 shall apply to the student in New Zealand. Any decision under these provisions to expel or exclude the Student will follow the Ministry of Education's guidance for school's on stand-downs, suspensions, exclusion and expulsion and shall terminate this Agreement.
- The contract is current for the dates requested above and maybe renewed subject to satisfactory performance and attendance. The issuing of an invoice for a new period of tuition, and the receipt of fees for that period will be understood by both parties to constitute renewal of this contract for the period for which the tuition fees have been paid

(Please contact the school if you do not understand or need help with this contract)

We confirm that we have read, understood and will comply with the terms set out in this application and the “School Rules and Conditions of Enrolment for International Students” on our website and understand that our studentd’s failure to comply with the school rules may result in our child’s removal from Nayland College. We have kept a copy of these rules for our own records.
